CLEAN YOUR LIVER AND 30 FEET OF BOWELS WITH "SYRUP OF FIGS."

More effective than calomel, castor oil or salts; gently cleanses the stomach, liver and bowels without nausea or griping. Children dearly love it.

You know when your liver is bad, when your bowels are sluggish. You feel a certain dullness and depression, perhaps the approach of a headache, your stomach gets sour and full of gas, tongue coated, breath foul, or you have indigestion. You say, "I am bilious or constipated and I must take something tonight."

Most people shrink from a physic—they think of castor oil, calomel, salts or cathartic pills.

It's different with Syrup of Figs. Its effect is as that of fruit; of eating coarse food; of exercise. Take a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs to-night and you won't realize you have taken anything until morning, when all the clogged up waste matter, sour bile and constipation poisons move on and out of your system, without gripe, nausea or weakness. Nothing else cleanses and regulates your sour, disordered stomach, torpid liver and thirty feet of waste-clogged bowels like gentle, effective Syrup of Figs. Don't think you are drugging yourself. Being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, it can not cause injury.

If your child is cross, sick and feverish, or its little stomach sour, tongue coated, give Syrup of Figs at once. It's really all that is needed to make children well and happy again. They dearly love its pleasant taste.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," and look on the label for the name—California Fig Syrup Company. That, and that only, is the genuine. Refuse any other fig syrup substitute with contempt.

Yes, Madam, "Chase & Sanborn"—the perfect blend—is always the same

Your experience with other coffees may have been that they vary in flavor and strength from time to time.

But "Chase & Sanborn's" madam, is always the same.

We know where every berry we use is grown. Each growth is tested for flavor, strength, body, acidity and caffeine; and our expert blenders are thus able to combine the coffees in such accurate proportions that "Seal Brand"—the perfect blend—is always the same.

If you have not yet tried "Seal Brand" do so today!

STILL ANOTHER FABLE.

Once upon a Time, the main Squeezes of a growing City located in the Heart of the great Mississippi Valley, woke up and to themselves spake thusly:

"For these many Years we have selfishly looked out for our own Interests; have not cared to meet our Neighbors, except for the mere selfish Reason of getting their Business; we have allowed Jealousies to exist in our Midst. Our leading Citizens seem to belong to different Cliques, each Clique watching the other, and when one Clique is pushing for a certain End, the others stand back indifferent absolutely as the Proposition is none of their Affair. There does not seem to be enough Co-operation among us, not enough of the get together Spirit."

This Awakening to the real Condition of Affairs was anything but pleasing, and the main Squeezes made up their Mind to start Something. A great Mass Meeting was called, a true get together Meeting, and a great Jubilee was planned.

It was decided to give the greatest Celebration ever given in the great Valley. Invitations by the thousands were sent out to all the People of the Valley for Miles and Miles around. They were asked to come and help celebrate the Awakening Spirit that had come over the growing City.

Large Committees were named from among all the varied Interests of the City. Competitors who heretofore hardly spoke to each other worked Side by Side to make the Affair such that all would have a grand Time.

As the Plans progressed and the whole People entered with Zest into the Spirit of the Affair, the Enthusiasm increased by Leaps and Bounds. The News reached every Town and Hamlet of the great Valley and the Interest spread until the whole Country seemed imbued with Anticipation of the great Celebration.

The People of the City, in the meantime, prepared a Programme of Amusements, great Parades, and everything that the People would enjoy as a whole People. Sectional Feelings were to be laid aside, social Distinctions were to have no Part in the great Jubilee. There were to be several Days of good Fellowship, of Pleasure, where all could enjoy with a Will the great Programme that had been prepared for the Occasion.

The Days came, and because the good People of the City meant every Word in the hearty Invitations to their Neighbors in the Country, because these Invitations rang true, the People came. Never before were the Streets so crowded, never before did the City's Streets ring with so much Music and Laughter. Hospitality and good Fellowship reigned supreme.

The Days of the Celebration sped like an Hour of Courtship; great Friendships sprang up; close Associations of later Years were started.

When the Association met after the Celebration it was unanimously decided to make the Association PERMANENT. That was many Years ago. The City has grown to be a great City. Her Fame is known from Coast to Coast and still each succeeding Year the great Days are celebrated; the Guests return for their good times and leave Business and Care behind.
